RE: THOMAS SONGS

Dear Britt,
It was great to see you again yesterday and although we only had a short meeting it did help to clarify the format for the new songs. All songs will be approximately 3 min. long.

1. "Sir Topham Hatt's Song": Possible Gilbert & Sullivan feel with reference to his noted lines i.e. "My doctor has forbidden me" etc.
2. "Every Cloud Has A Silver Lining": Based on Bill and Ben's theme – reference to mix ups and mistakes, but everything works out in the end.

Observations of this by the children.
'Rock 'n' Roll theme.

Hi again David!

Personal Info Redacted

Here's the follow up from the lads. Please could you call them about "Donald's Duck Song".

Many thanks.

Britt

2. "Every Cloud Has A Silver Lining": Based on Bill and Ben's theme – reference to mix ups and mistakes, but everything works out in the end.
3. "It Must Be Great To Be An Engine" - Observations of this by the children.
4. "Come For The Ride": High speed thrills – Based on Duncan's Rock 'n' Roll theme.
5. "Donald's Duck Song": To be discussed with David Mitton.
6. "Night Train": Based on the Post Train theme – the magic and mystery of trains by night.
7. "Up Here. Down There": Using the feel of Harold The Helicopter's theme – Dam Busters
8. "Accidents Will Happen": Thrills and Spills and Crashes on the railway – Show Song.
9. "Percy's Sea Side Song": Based around Percy's theme – The fun of travelling to the seaside.
10. "Snow Song": The Isalnd of Sodor in the winter snow – Skating etc.

The only one that was not clear was "Donald's Duck Song". We presume you will speak to David about this. Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Mike
